

Wamark Publishers PTY (Ltd)

You're Invited

We have been proudly associated with ITSI Schools for the past three years.

We have been invited to exhibit and showcase our products and services at the following expo venues.

We will be launching our "My Accounting Tutor" video tutorials

The cocktail and breakfast events are free of charge but bookings are essential. Please see the dates and contact numbers attached.

Please come and support us. We can't wait to see you there.

Yours,
The Wamark Team

ROAD SHOW | GAUTENG

Creating pathways to learning, understanding and recalling

What if some of the most popular teaching practices are detrimental to learning?

Why is the schooling system not creating critical thinkers?
Why do so many brilliant first year students fail their study year?

Join us for a cocktail event where Dr Liebenberg will explore the latest neuroscience research and memory formation.
